

California Coastal Commission

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Revised: July 31, 2000

We're looking for great legal talent.

One Limited-Term, Part-Time (50%) Position is still available.
Full time position has been filled.

About us. The Coastal Commission is a small state agency that has regulatory and planning authority over development of the California coast. The Commission's headquarters office is located in San Francisco's Financial District and it has district offices in San Diego, Long Beach, Ventura, Santa Cruz and Eureka. The Commission's staff includes dedicated planners, attorneys and administrative staff.

About the Job. We anticipate that the FY 2000-2001 budget will include a new full-time Staff Counsel position. Additionally, we will have a limited-term, part-time (50%) Staff Counsel position. (It is anticipated that the limited-term position will be for a period of 12 months with the possibility of extension for an additional 12 months.)

The attorneys will work under the supervision of the Chief Counsel and Deputy Chief Counsel on legal issues concerning land use, environmental and administrative law. The positions will be filled in San Francisco. There may be some travel to Commission offices in other parts of the state. The attorneys will work with seven other attorneys in the San Francisco office.

Assignments will include review of staff recommendations and preparation of legal opinions and analyses for both Commission staff and the Commission. It is not currently anticipated that the attorneys will represent the Commission in litigation. The full time monthly salary range is between $3511-$6763, depending on qualifications and experience.

Who We Want. We're looking for attorneys with excellent writing, research and analytical skills, who exercise sound judgment and enjoy working both independently and as part of a team. Attorneys with experience and/or education in land use, environmental or administrative law may be particularly competitive in the hiring process.

Application Process. Eligibles on the current agency examination list as well as attorneys already employed by the State in the position of Staff Counsel or its equivalent should submit a resume and an application (Form 678) to the CA Coastal Commission, Personnel Office, 45 Fremont Street, Suite 1900, San Francisco, CA 94105. Resumes and applications received by June 5 will receive the fullest consideration. Oral interviews will be scheduled in June 2000. SROAs will be considered. Relocation expenses are not offered for this position.
